

Items to Bring to an Arrangement Conference

- Vital Statistic Information – required to complete the death certificate
- Obituary Information
- Obituary photo
- (Vital Statistic and Obituary information can be completed on our webpage and submitted electronically or printed and brought to your appointment).
- Clothing for your loved one – including appropriate undergarments (Long sleeves and a closed neckline are best)
- Any favorite perfume, cologne, cosmetics, lipstick, or nail polish
- Rosary, icon or other religious items
- Glasses
- Jewelry for your loved one – Your funeral director will discuss your instructions about whether items are to be returned to the family or stay with the deceased. (Stud or button earrings are better than those that hang or dangle)
- A recent photograph of your loved one (to be used for hair and makeup)
- Video Tribute – up to 75 photos
- Photographs, memorabilia or other items to be displayed
- DD-214 or Military Discharge documents and VA Claim Number
- Cemetery deed or contract
- Life Insurance Policy or Information including policy number, beneficiary designations, death benefit, any loans against policy
- Pre-arrangement documents, Will or Advanced Directives that include funeral instructions

